"Judge" Keithly says his copper plate chirography in the Thompson divorce that the accusation was in regard to other parties and made in the presence of the police.

Leadville several years ago, and subsequently, it is thought, came to Butte.
James Graham, also of Detroit, is anxious to hear from him, as his mother and brother have died since he left his home.

A note in a lady's handwriting, properly signed as a matter of good faith, reached the STANDARD, and reads as follows:
"There are five young and accomplished ladies in a dry goods store on Main street, not more than half a block from Broadway, who would appreciate the attentions of five handsome bachelors that suited their tastes. Don't be bashful, young men, but buy your dry goods at that particular store." This might be taken as a leap year hint.

TWO SUITS FOR DIVORCE

After Many Years of Married Life Couples Find They are Illy
Mated—Other Court House News.

BUTTE, Feb. 10.—Petitions for divorce are again in the lead of the number of marriage licenses granted. The first 10 days of February finds eight new divorce cases filed in Department 11, of the district court. In the first petition filed today by Attorney W. E. Carroll, Girardo Garramone is the plaintiff and Leona Garramone is the defendant. The complaint sets forth that the couple were married on Jan. 19, 1881, at the city of Winnipeg, in the province of Manitoba.
The charges made against the defendant are based upon information and belief that on a certain day in September, 1891, she committed an unholy act with one Lewis Verne in a house of ill fame conducted by Nellie Raymond in Great Falls.
Upon information the husband believes that a few days later the woman was again in the same place with Verne, and at divers times and places after that repeated her relations with the correspondent, all of which without the consent of the plaintiff, and since learning of her wrongdoings he has refused to live with her. No children are mentioned and the plaintiff simply asks for a dissolution of the bonds of matrimony.

The second petition for the day was filed by Charles O'Donnell for Emily Beaupeart, who wants to be divorced from her husband, Joseph Beaupeart. They were married Sept. 13, 1877, at St. Joseph, Mo., and five children are the result of the union, as follows: Katie, aged 11; Joseph, aged 12; Lewis, aged 10; Edna, aged 7, and Laura, aged 2. The defendant is charged with extreme cruelty, and that since the first day of February, 1890, he has wholly failed and refused to provide for his family with the necessities of life, and the plaintiff has been compelled to support herself and five children by taking in washing. The complaint further states that the defendant is exceedingly disagreeable, objectionable and dissipated, so much so that the plaintiff's life has been and would be a continued life of pain and mental torment. The defendant did, during the marriage, habitually use profane and vulgar language toward the plaintiff, calling her indecent names and cursing her in the vilest manner. He is also accused of being a idle and lazy person and will not work to earn a living either for himself or family, and his wife had even to support him during the past two years.
What little money he earns he gambles away, and on several occasions has borrowed money from his wife to play faro.
She does not consider him a proper person to have the care and custody of the five children. With her complaint the plaintiff filed an affidavit to the effect that she has a good and meritorious cause of action, but that she is unable to pay the costs in money or procure security for them, and the county will assist her in a financial way to get rid of her objectionable husband.

Court House Notes.

A notice was posted in the court house corridor today offering a reward for information leading to the whereabouts of Charles Collins, an Englishman who resided in Sumner, Cal., about 10 years ago, and who was last heard from while working on the California & Oregon railroad six years ago. He is about 29 years old, and the notice says it would be to his great advantage to communicate with J. R. Jameson at Bakersville, Kern county, Cal.

The transcript in an appeal from the justice court was filed today in the case of Maguire & Dobson against Joseph Cameron.

An execution was issued today in accordance with a judgment rendered in favor of the plaintiff in the case of William Beckel against Frederick Feilke for $25.00 and costs.

An even dozen applicants for county help were waiting about the door of the office of the overseer of the poor at one time this morning.

Judge Pemberton will hold court long enough to-morrow morning to make a call of the calendar and make an effort to set some cases for trial.

In the case of the state against Andy McKenzie, who was found guilty last week of running stock off the range, Attorney Lippinott today filed a statement on a petition for a new trial, alleging that the jury's verdict was not in accordance with the law and evidence in the case.

A FRIEND OF THE OPPRESSED.

Ed Collins Is Tried Before a Jury in Judge Arnold's Court.

BUTTE, Feb. 10.—Ex-Pound Master Ed Collins was tried before Judge Arnold and a jury of six men today, for using abusive language to an officer and disturbing the peace. Deputy Sheriff Rehfeld was the complaining witness, and as such was the first witness examined. His testimony credited Collins with being an artist in the use of vile, abusive and filthy language, such as is seldom used outside of fish monger's stalls and the lowest dives. Police Magistrate McMurphy and Officers Donovan and Cartwell also testified for the state, and their accounts of the affair were in a large measure corroborative of that given by Rehfeld. Collins, while not particularly denying the testimony of the other witnesses, said he was the victim of a persecution because he dared to espouse the cause of the weak and oppressed and had inaugurated a crusade against certain alleged wrongs that were practiced on poor people by the officers and other tyrants. For this and nothing more he had been subjected to the ignominy of being arrested. His argument was credited to four of the six jurors, enough in a misdemeanor case to bring in a verdict, and they voted for an acquittal, holding that it was a constitutional right of every free American citizen to abuse an officer or use such language as might please him.
The other two jurors were in favor of conviction, but were outvoted.

Next Friday Collins will again be tried, this time before Judge McMurphy, for a repetition of his offense, he having, it is claimed, again abused Rehfeld since his first arrest.

LIFE'S YOUNG DREAM IS OVER.

After Twenty-Six Years of Married Life, Mr. and Mrs. Cotter Have Trouble.

BUTTE, Feb. 10.—A family difficulty received a thorough airing in Judge Mc-Murphy's court today, and the usual crowd of idle spectators was deeply interested in the proceedings. D. P. Cotter, an old gray-haired man, was tried for threatening to take the life of his wife, to whom he has been married for 26 years.
Cotter, it seems, is given to drinking to excess, and at times, it is alleged, he shamefully abuses and maltreats his family.
Recently Mrs. Cotter applied to the district court for a divorce from her husband, whose cruelty, she alleged, has become unbearable, and she wants the ties that for more than a quarter of a century have bound them together, severed. Summons was served on Cotter, and a few nights ago entered his wife's room and there, it is alleged, assaulted her and threatened to cut a great, big gash in her throat. For this Mrs. Cotter had him arrested, and his trial today was the result. Mrs. Cotter and her two daughters testified for the prosecution, and the fact was tolerably well established that the old gentleman had been guilty of some decidedly rude conduct.
Judge McMurphy reserved decision until this evening, as still another charge rested against the defendant. The second complaint was brought under the city ordinances, and was for disturbing the peace. When arraigned for trial for the second offense, Cotter withdrew his former plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty. The court then rendered judgment in the first case. His honor said that while he had been established that the defendant was guilty of an offense, the evidence adduced was not sufficient to warrant him to find the accused guilty of the offense charged and therefore dismissed him. The complaint should have alleged the lesser offense of assault and battery, the court said, as it was not shown that Cotter had really threatened to kill Mrs. Cotter.
The attorney for the defense claimed that the action was brought for the defendant's imprisonment in jail so as to prevent him from making an effective answer to the petition for divorce.

RAISING A HOWL.

Some Men Who Oppose the Enlargement of the City.

BUTTE, Feb. 10.—There is said to be a good deal of opposition in the Parrot corner to the idea of becoming annexed to the city. Thomas Sefton, a large property owner southeast of the city limits, says that a mass meeting will be called down there soon for the purpose of opposing the proposed annexation. "We don't want any big lazy policemen down there," said Mr. Sefton, in giving his reasons for opposing marriage to Butte. "If we could get into the city without having to put up with policemen and without being ruined by taxation, we might come in. The only thing the city of Butte has that we want is a police force. Give us that, and we will propose to have them; but we can get them without taking the whole city of
